

Arrow Energy - Freight Preparation Guideline - ORG-ARW-SMT-GUI-00002 - Comparing Ver 3.0 with Ver 2.0

Note: Compare excludes any basic punctuation, formatting and paragraph changes. Only content changes are listed.

Change no	Section	New Page	Change	Comments
1	Front page	1	Version No., Released date, Review date	Ver 3.0 Released 12/07/2018
2	Index	2 & 3	Increased number of sections	Page changes
3	4 - Standards & Codes	5	Added LRG - Load Restraint Guide 2018
4	5 - Legislation	5	Deleted superseded Regulations
5	5 - Legislation	6	Added The Heavy Vehicle National Law (2012)	Highlighted revised National Regulations to abide by and added Heavy Vehicle Standards
6	5.2 - Chain of Responsibility	6	Added wording and steps	Regulated Rest Breaks. Goods are able to be adequately restrained. Vehicles are roadworthy at all times. Vehicle Standards & Maintenance. CoR Influence or Control.
7	5.2 - Chain of Responsibility	6	Consignor's Packaging Methods to be documented	Document in Supply Chain Risk Assessment. Load Restraint Guide 2018
8	5.2 - Chain of Responsibility	7	Change from "Reasonable Steps" to ALARP	Have procedures in place to ensure ALARP = As Low As Reasonably Practicable
9	5.2 - Chain of Responsibility	7	Change from NTC to NHVR	NTC = National Transport Commission. NHVR = National Heavy Vehicle Regulator
10	5.3 - CoR Responsibilities	8 to 10	Redefinition and expansion of CoR Responsibilities	Greater Responsibilities of individuals under law
11	6.1 - Documentation	10	All freight container movements must be accompanied by a Container Weight Declaration (CWD) that is compliant with the requirements of the HVNL.	Transport companies should already be doing this under law
12	8.1 - Packing	14	More stringent Packaging Methods per Load Restraint Guide 2018	Highlights Shrink Wrapping (must be clear and not used for load restraint), Strapping & Banding, Wind Load Forces in Transport
13	8.2.4 - Frames	16	Load Restraint Guide 2018. Engineer certification documentation must be retained and be able to be produced on request
14	8.7 - Pipe Fittings	19	"triple stacked" (not "triple sacked")	Correction of words
15	8.9 - Palletised Items	20	Meeting AS 4068. Palletised items must be restrained in compliance with the Loading Performance Standards documented in the Load Restraint Guide 2018.
16	8.15 - Intermediate Bulk Containers (IBCs)	22	New item not in version 2.0
17	11 - Appendix 1 - Examples	24 & 25	New section with photos
18	12 - Document Administration	26	Updated version, names, dates	